BOUTIQUE WINE BUSINESS

This 33 ha wine farm lies in a renowned mini wine region to the west of Paarl below Paarl Mountain. Described as the benchmark of excellence this wine ward reflects the terroir needed for making world class wines. The main farming activity constitutes 11 ha of predominantly red wine grapes, all of which are popular cultivars for producing top hand crafted wines. Approximately 30 tons of harvested grapes are processed in the cellar, but the cellar has the capacity to process 150 tonnes. Wines produced in the cellar have received international wine awards. Water is obtained from 2 boreholes (delivering capacities of 14 000 & 1 400 l/h) as well as from 8 ha registered water usage rights. This water gets stored in a large reservoir from where the wine grapes are irrigated under natural gravitation. In addition to the established...
